

Aged 65 or over?

Pneumococci bacteria can cause pneumonia, ear infections and sinusitis, as well as serious conditions with high mortality rates such as blood poisoning (sepsis) and meningitis.

From the year in which you turn 65, you will be offered the pneumococcal vaccine at a reduced price.
Speak to your doctor about vaccination for adults.

For more information, see
fhi.no/voksenvaksinasjon