

Which children should have the influenza vaccine?

Children who have:

- Asthma or other lung disease
- Heart disease
- Epilepsy or other chronic neurological disorder or injury
- Liver or kidney failure
- Diabetes
- Severe obesity
- Children born prematurely
- Impaired immune system caused by illness or treatment

...and other serious chronic or genetic conditions where influenza poses a serious health risk. Speak to your child's doctor about the vaccine.

For more information, see fhi.no/voksevakinasjon