

Vaccines for adults

Are you 65 years or older?

You should take the vaccine against coronavirus and influenza.

The vaccines can be taken together and protect against a severe disease course.

Read more at
fhi.no/adultvaccination